- 10. Conditions for Managing Accounts. Does the applicant provide investment supervisory services, manage investment advisory accounts or hold itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services and impose a minimum dollar value of assets or other conditions for starting or maintaining an account?

Yes No

(If yes, describe on Schedule F.)

- 11. Review of Accounts. If applicant provides investment supervisory services, manages investment advisory accounts, or holds itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services:

A. Describe below the reviews and reviewers of the accounts. For reviews, include their frequency, different levels, and triggering factors. For reviewers, include the number of reviewers, their titles and functions, instructions they receive from applicant on performing reviews, and number of accounts assigned each.

Advisory accounts are reviewed weekly for changes in fair market value. On a monthly basis, brokerage statements are reviewed from firms through whom transactions are entered into. On an annual basis, Certified Public Accountants on our firm's staff, or through an affiliated organization, reivew each account for possible tax advantages to be effected through the realignment of our clients' portfolios. These reviews are discussed with the Investment Advisor, and clients are notified about our recommendations.

The firm's Chief Investment Officer is responsible for all account reviews. Each account is supervised in accordance with the Individual clients' specific investment goals, liquidity needs, risk profile, and desired target rate of return. In conducting the review, asset allocation strategies, determined in consultation with the client, guidelines as to the selection of firm approved investment vehicles, and general economic conditions are all considered. Each Advisor has a varied number of accounts, with a limit of no more than fifty.

B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Each client recieves a schedule of cash received and disbursed from their separate bank accounts each week. On a monthly basis, a complete set of financial statements, accounted for on the cash basis of accounting, are rendered, with selected schedules incorporated therein. For each security trade, clients receive copies of confirmations from the various Broker-Dealers through whom individual stock and bond trades are effected.

For those clients with portfolios with SEI Investments, monthly, quarterly and annual reports are rendered. For those non-SEI clients, on a quarterly basis, Borris/Nii/Valdez & Company, Inc. renders portfolio reports containing detailed information such as current market values, net client investment, tax basis, and proffolio mix. Special purpose reports are available to the firm's clients upon their request.
